(c) Standing Committee for Finance and Taxation.

1. Budget.
2. Measures to taxation.
3. Proposals for improving the State's finances.
4. Proposals for retrenchment.

6. In addition to the foregoing subjects the following may also be placed before the Standing Committee whenever the Government deem it desirable to do so;

(i) Reports of special committees appointed by the Government on departments coming within the purview of the Standing Committee;

(ii) Annual Reports;

(iii) All Bills introduced or proposed to be introduced in the Legislative Council and relating to the departments within the purview of the committee.

(iv) Any question of policy on which the Member in charge of a department concerned desires the opinion of the Standing Committee.

7. The functions of the Standing Committees will be purely advisory and their proceedings will be strictly confidential. No press representatives will be allowed to attend any meeting of the Committee.

8. Meetings of the Standing Committees will be summoned by the Secretaries at such times and as frequently as may be decided by the Dewan. The agenda of each meeting will be drawn up and circulated by the Secretary together with a memorandum explaining each item of business and copies of such papers as the Member in charge of department directs to be furnished to the Committee. The proceedings of the committee will be confined to items of business entered in the agenda and any request for further information will be dealt with under the order of the Member in charge.

9. At a meeting of the Standing Committee, the Secretary may be requested by the Chairman to explain each item of business. The Chairman will then invite a discussion and the Secretary will note on the departmental file the general opinion of the Committee.
